MATTERS ARISING

Further email received from Edgerton and Dalton regarding called off match with Leymoor on 1 August 2009. Contents noted.

CORRESPONDENCE

Response received from Horbury Bridge regarding the state of their wicket. The Management Board acknowledge that the remedial actions taken by them are satisfactory at this time.

Letter received from the organisers of the Black Sheep Trophy advising that only eight senior sides will make up the competition in 2010 and that the HCCL League Champions will not be invited to join.

Letter received from the organisers of the Heron White Rose Trophy advising that there is insufficient support to run the competition in 2010. Subsequently however, a further communication has been received stating that the competition may yet still go ahead.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS

A number of clubs have put in requests to change a fixture date because of galas/community events etc. The Management Board have sanctioned the changes for the club's team playing the home fixture only.

Umar Chishti has agreed to be the manager of the Adult League Team. There is still a vacancy for the manager of the Junior League Team. Anyone interested please contact Jack Carson, League President.

NEXT MEETING
